PLAID FRIDAY NOVEMBER 29

The Downtown Auburn Merchants are offering a less frenetic pace this year with Plaid Friday replacing Black Friday. We want you to slow down and enjoy a more laid-back Black Friday experience, hence the transition to Plaid Friday!

According to the Escalon Times located in Oakdale, CA: Plaid Friday was born out of a recognition that the frenzied nature of Black Friday may not be for everyone. The event was created in Oakland, California, to transform holiday shopping for family and friends into a more connected, pleasurable activity than Black Friday. Plaid Friday promotes the diversity and creativity of local and independent businesses. On Plaid Friday, customers are urged to shop locally and enjoy choosing gifts in a more leisurely fashion.

According to event organizers, the name 'Plaid Friday' was chosen from the idea of weaving individual threads of small businesses together to create a strong fabric that celebrates independent businesses. While Plaid Friday may have originated in California, it has now spread to local towns across the country. Plaid Friday precedes Small Business Saturday, meaning holiday shoppers can turn their two-day, post-Thanksgiving shopping excursions into 48 hours of opportunities to support small businesses.

The Downtown Auburn Businesses welcome you to our first Ever Plaid Friday Event Friday, November 29th we promise we will make it a pleasurable experience.

Your Community Connection

Here's to wonderful times with friends and loved ones this holiday season.

TRADITION with a TWIST

Black Friday is the Friday after Thanksgiving. It traditionally marks the start of the Christmas shopping season. The Big Box stores offer deeply discounted specials to get you in the door. The idea was that most stores finally were in the black (meaning they were no longer in debt) for the rest of the retail year. We hope you decide to do your Black Friday shopping right here in Downtown Auburn to support all our wonderful locally owned businesses.

Cyber Monday is an e-commerce (Internet Sales) on the Monday after Thanksgiving in the United States allowing large corporations to promote shopping by offering a loss leader discounts to get you to shop on-line and not have to leave the house. We suggest you look up your favorite locally owned shop and see if they offer any Cyber Monday specials before you spend your money with the big corporations. You might be surprised how many of our local businesses do internet sales.

SMALL BUSINESS SATURDAY NOVEMBER 30

Small Business Saturday originally was created and promoted by American Express to encourage holiday shopping on the Saturday after Thanksgiving. It is a day to support small businesses in your community. Most of our downtown shops will take cash, or other credit cards we are more about shopping local then making you use a specific credit card. We ask that you shop responsible and purchase what you can afford and what you have budgeted. When you shop local we can assist with those budgets and help keep you on track!

GIVING TUESDAY DECEMBER 3

Giving Tuesday is a global generosity movement. Giving Tuesday encourages you to shop and participating shops will donate a portion of their sales to a charity. Every person, every business has a different charity that is near and dear to them. Check out what business is giving to your favorite charity. Organizers share, "Whether it's making someone smile, helping a neighbor or stranger out, showing up for an issue or people we care about, or giving some of what we have to those who need our help, every act of generosity counts and everyone has something to give."

CIDER MONDAY DECEMBER 2

Instead of Cyber Monday, a day when online merchants offer special deals, we can't compete with those multi-million-dollar on-line merchants. So, some of our small local businesses are participating in Cider Monday, that's right instead of on-line sales participating businesses are offering cider while you shop. You may get lucky and score a cider donut too! Also, if you choose to shop online, choose local too!

GRATEFUL WEDNESDAY DECEMBER 4

Grateful Wednesday was started to express heartfelt gratitude to those who've made a difference. Saying Thank You is essential, especially after one of the most generous days of the year. We are not asking you to spend money on this day, just stop in and say thank you for being here!

AUBURN CELEBRATES 20TH ANNIVERSARY OF BELOVED FROSTY LIGHTING TRADITION

Each holiday season, following the Downtown Auburn Christmas Parade, the community gathers for the magical moment when "Frosty" is illuminated. As part of a special fundraising event, the Downtown Auburn Business Association auctions off the coveted honor of being the "official switch-thrower" for the display. This heartwarming role is often given to a young child, whose face beams with joy as "Frosty" lights up the night after an exciting countdown and the grand flip of the switch!

The Christmas Parade, sponsored by the Downtown Auburn Business Association and Auburn Main Street, kicks off at the DeKalb County Fairgrounds and winds through downtown, ending at Courthouse Park on the corner of 7th and Cedar Streets. Grab a cup of hot chocolate and join in this festive celebration that brings the spirit of Christmas to life in Auburn.

After the parade, don't miss the lighting of the magnificent James Foundation Christmas Tree at the James Cultural Plaza, sponsored by the James Foundation, Inc. It's the perfect opportunity to capture special holiday moments with friends and family and make memories that will last a lifetime.

Get ready for a heartwarming holiday tale set in the charming town of Auburn, Indiana. Produced by talented video director and producer Josh Littlejohn, along with Mary Kay Clark of Excelsior Arts Academy and Youth Theater, follow two dedicated volunteers as they spread joy and find love while serving with Big Brothers Big Sisters. As they immerse themselves in the holiday spirit, they discover that the true magic of the season lies in the bonds they form with each other and the community. Join us for a delightful journey through downtown Auburn, where love and goodwill abound in this feel-good Hallmark-style story.

Episodes run on the Auburn Main Street YouTube channel through November and culminating after the 2024 Holiday Parade.

All episodes promote and lead up to this year's Auburn Main Street "Season's Greetings" display of big wooden holiday postcards that will be unveiled in Court Yard Park at the corner of Cedar and 7th Street in Downtown Auburn.
