Black Pine Animal Sanctuary

1426 W. C.R. 300N 636-7383 www.bpsanctuary.org/ Black Pine is an award-winning exotic animal sanctuary that provides refuge to displaced, captive-raised exotic animals and educates people about responsible animal care and conservation. The refuge does not buy, sell, breed, trade or use animals for commercial purposes. Black Pine is home to nearly 100 wildcats, bears, foxes, wolves and more. Visitors of all ages are welcome to participate in a variety of tour programs that explore the 18-acre site and introduce the individual animals who have endured past lives as pets, performers and as the products of profiteers. A variety of programs cater to all ages, from toddlers to seniors, with options available year-round. General visitation on a walk-in basis is typically scheduled six days a week from Memorial Day through Labor Day. Guided tours, highly recommended by the staff, are scheduled routinely from May through October. Private tours by appointment are also available during the off-season. Advanced planning is recommended by visiting www.bpvisit.org or by calling (260) 636-7383. Program rates vary, ranging from $4 to $7 for kids, and $8 to $50 for adults. The sanctuary features paved pathways for accessibility and a gift shop on site. Parking is free.

CONTRIBUTED

Twenty West Noble children are shown with their brand-new bicycles, courtesy of the Dan Dakich Foundation and the Ligonier police and fire departments. The departments raised the money to partner with the Dakich foundation for the bike giveaway, the second one in Ligonier. Teachers and school resource officers helped select the recipients. For some recipients, it's the first new bike they've had. All recipients in K-12 also received helmets and bike locks.

Rex, Isobel and Biffy Rawles of Kendallville took advantage of an unusually late-season snow to roll together a giant snowman in their yard.

PATRICK REDMOND

Fresh snow made back county roads a little more difficult to travel as the first major winter storm of 2023 dumped several inches of snow on northern Indiana.
