REWARD

The FBI is offering a reward of up to $10,000 for information leading to the identification, arrest, and conviction of the unknown individual involved in this incident.

DETAILS

The Federal Bureau of Investigation's Phoenix Field Office, Tucson Resident Agency, is seeking information on an unknown individual who is responsible for inciting violence and damaging an ICE/ERO facility located near S. Country Club Road and E. Valencia Road in Tucson, Arizona, on June 11, 2025. This unknown individual was observed causing significant damage to the building and being an agitator during a protest. In coordination with our law enforcement partners, at least two other individuals have been arrested in connection with this incident. The incident is still under investigation, and additional charges or arrests may be forthcoming.

Law enforcement officials have seen this individual at other protests. The individual is described as a White male in his 40s with a medium to large build, between 5'9" and 6'0", with glasses. He has been seen wearing loose fitting clothes and a full-face cover.

If you have any information concerning this person, please contact your local FBI office or the nearest American Embassy or Consulate.
