SMOKE

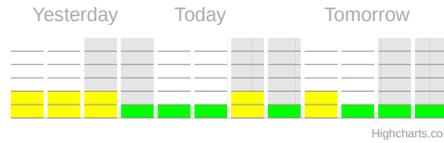

Active fire behavior is expected once again today. The winds take on a more westerly component today and into the weekend. This will bring the primary smoke impacts to the heart of the Navajo Nation. House Rock Valley into Tuba City can expect UNHEALTHY for SENSITIVE GROUPS smoke impacts with periods of UNHEALTHY during peak fire activity in the afternoons.

Page and Lake Powell regions finally catch a break today, with GOOD air quality expected today and through the weekend. Isolated pockets of burning within the Grand Canyon below the North Rim continue to allow some smoke to settle into the canyon overnight. Areas to the south and west of the fires will remain GOOD, including Grand Canyon South Rim. Fredonia and Kanab can expect generally GOOD air quality conditions as the area continues to be sheltered from the southern California smoke.

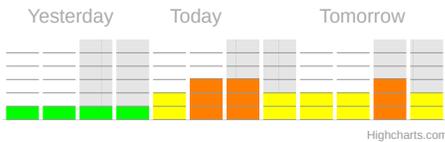

Grand Canyon Village (South Rim) It's all GOOD (smoke-wise) on the South Rim and another great day to visit. Smoke plume visible to the north.

Tuba City Winds from the west push more smoke into the area. Expect generally USG smoke conditions today.

Phantom Ranch (Canyon Bottom) GOOD smoke conditions expected again today. Expect these conditions to continue into the weekend.

House Rock Valley More smoke funnels back into the region today. Expect USG smoke impacts which may vary due to wind direction.

Kanab/Fredonia Another day of GOOD air quality conditions. The region continues to be sheltered from the southern California smoke.
