Statement of Probable Cause:

On 09/10/2019 the victim discovered that her van's passenger window had been broken out and her daughter's iPad and her work computer were stolen from within. The van had been parked and secured in the victim's residential driveway. Officer photographed the the broken out front passenger door window. On the side of the leather seat, there was blood transfer. Where this blood was located was consistent with a person that cut themselves breaking and reaching through the window while reaching for the slider door handle. The victim described how her laptop had been in the rear seat area of the van and the iPad was in the front seat. It should be noted that the
