Statement of Probable Cause:

Offender on 7/20/25 walked into the Grand Luxe Hotel lobby located at [REDACTED] removed a plastic waterbottle from his pocket which had a clear liquid inside of it. The offender looked around the lobby and then removed a light from his pocket, opened the bottle, poured it onto the front desk and into the clerks area behind a plastic partition and lit the liquid on fire causing 10k damage. Fire which ensued and the offender ran away from the scene. An employee who was not in the lobby at the time of the start of the fire responded to the lobby when fire alarms went off and put the fire out with a fire extinguisher while smoke, soot, and flames were in the building. The offender checked themselves into the CRC on 7/21/25 and admitted to involvement in the fire. LE arrived and read miranda (y/y) and the offender admitted involvement in the incident, stating he had money stolen from him from a previous rental at the hotel and wanted the police to know about it.
