Dear Laconia School District Staff and Families:

We received this information from Homeland Security this morning:

The Department of Safety is monitoring multiple active shooter threats that have been made at schools throughout the state. At this time these reports are believed to be a hoax. The NH Information Analysis Center is heavily involved in coordinating these investigations.

At this time these reports are believed to be a hoax. The NH Information Analysis Center is heavily involved in coordinating these investigations.

The police have determined that at this time, there is no credible threat to our schools in Laconia. We are working in conjunction with the Laconia Police Department, who are present in our schools as a precautionary measure to support our students and staff.

We will keep you posted as more information becomes available.

Sincerely,

Steve Tucker
Superintendent of Schools
