

LAKES REGION TAX PREPARER DIRECTORY

Applying for an extension on your taxes

The vast majority of taxpayers will have no issue filing their taxes by the deadline, but some may not be able to file on time. In such instances, taxpayers can apply for an extension of time to file.

An extension is not necessarily as straightforward as the term suggests. In fact, the IRS urges taxpayers to be aware that applying for an extension does not grant taxpayers an extension of time to pay their taxes. Failure to pay by the April 15 deadline could incur penalties, even for people who have applied for an extension. The IRS urges taxpayers to estimate any owed taxes by the deadline and submit payments for those estimates by April 15.

Some taxpayers may not have to submit an extension return. The IRS notes that taxpayers in certain disaster areas do not need to submit an extension electronically or on paper.

Individual taxpayers, regardless of income, can use the IRS Free File to request an automatic tax-filing extension. Filing that form gives taxpayers until Oct. 15 to file a return.
