

Ignatian Heritage Month

Information Compiled by Kayan Tara, Asst. News Editor, Graphic by Chloe Cunningham | Loyolan

Ignatian Heritage Month commemorates the living legacy of St. Ignatius of Loyola during a month long celebration throughout November.

"The goal of Ignatian Heritage Month is to bring a greater understanding of and appreciation for Loyola Marymount University's Ignatian heritage to our student body."

via LMU Website

Ignatian Heritage Month is Nov. 1- Nov. 19

During Ignatian Heritage Month, Campus Ministry wants students to:

Know:

The Ignatian vocabulary:
"Do you speak Ignatian?"

Value:

The care of the whole person

Do:

Find a way to live out the heritage in daily life by learning and practicing the Examen

Nov. 8 | 8 p.m.–9 p.m.

Jesuit Community Open House, The Jesuit Community will host an open house with refreshments, brief tours and the opportunity to win lunch at the Jesuit community!

Nov. 12

Mass with Fr. Meehan

Nov. 15 | 5 p.m.–6:30 p.m.

Hunger Banquet in St. Robs
Oxfam America's annual Hunger Banquet here at LMU in support of Hunger Awareness week

Nov. 16 | 12:30 p.m.

Martyrs memorial at Foley Pond
El Salvadoran Martyrs Prayer Service at Foley Pond on the 27th Anniversary of the killing of six Jesuits in EL Salvador, their housekeeper and her daughter.

The theme of Ignatian Heritage Month 2017 is 'Jesuit Educated for...'