

Pennsylvania Farm Bureau

Growing Communities | Many Voices | United Vision

Experience our Value in Action

www.pfb.com

Cambria County’s Tommy Nagle Re-elected as Farm Bureau VP

Cambria County farmer Tommy Nagle has been re-elected as Vice President of Pennsylvania Farm Bureau (PFB) by voting delegates at the 75th Annual Meeting of the state’s largest farm organization.

Nagle previously served as the Pennsylvania Farm Bureau Vice President since he was appointed by the PFB Board of Directors to fill a vacancy following the 2022 Annual Meeting. Nagle will serve a two-year term.

Nagle raises beef cattle and grows crops on his family farm in Patton, Cambria County.

Nagle served on the PFB State Board of Directors for three years before being elected Vice President. Nagle has served on the Cambria County Farm Bureau Board of Directors for eight years, from 2011-2019 and has served as the President of Cambria County Farm Bureau from 2014-19. Nagle has been a longtime contributor to Farm Bureau, previously serving as the Vice President of his county, and he served as the policy development chair and the Young Farmer and Rancher (now Young Ag Professionals) chair in Cambria County.

In 2013, Nagle won PFB’s Young Farmer and Rancher Achievement Award, which is awarded to a Young Farmer and Rancher involved in production agriculture who has excelled in their farm or ranch and that demonstrate superior leadership skills. Overall, Nagle has more than a decade of experience in Farm Bureau leadership roles.

Nagle previously worked for DelGrosso Foods, as a purchase director for Imler’s Poultry and as a business banker for M&T Bank.

Nagle holds an accounting degree from Saint Francis University. Tommy has five children.

Help Lead Pennsylvania Agriculture

Farm Bureau is an organization representing farm families engaged in all types of agriculture — from farms of every size and commodity, to craft breweries, to farm-to-table restaurants and agritourism experiences.

Register Today for PFB’s Amplify Convention, Featuring Bar 7 Ranch

Pennsylvania Farm Bureau will be hosting an Amplify Convention on Feb. 14-15 at the Penn Stater Hotel and Conference Center in State College. The conference is being put on by Pennsylvania Farm Bureau’s Young Ag Professionals and Ag Promotion and Education committees.

The Amplify Convention will promote “Building your Foundation,” and will touch on several topics, including agritourism, engagement, finance, innovation, mindset, stewardship, professionalism, leadership, networking and legislation.

The keynote speaker for the event will be Cody and Erika Archie of Bar 7 Ranch. The Archies are first-generation ranchers from Central Texas who raise beef cattle and Dorper sheep with their two children, Kylee and Clancy.

Alongside ranching, they also run Valet Cleaners & Laundry, build a few homes each year and manage rental properties proving that success on and off the farm often comes by wearing many hats.

What started as simply sharing their daily lives has grown into a community of more than 3 million people who follow the Archies online for a mix of grit, laughter and faith. Their story highlights the challenges and opportunities of modern agriculture, while reminding audiences that strong families and strong values are the foundation of any operation.

One and two-day registrations are available. The cost of the conference is $75 for one day and $100 for two days. Hotel reservations must be made by the attendee.

For conference registration information, please visit <https://pfb.com/be-involved/young-ag-professionals/conference/>. The deadline to register for the conference is Jan. 2.

We hope to see you there!

Pennsylvania Farm Bureau is the state’s largest farm organization, representing farms of every size and commodity across Pennsylvania. PFB advocates policies that protect the right to farm and improve farmers’ bottom line while growing the public’s understanding of agriculture through educational outreach. PFB members experience our value in action through the opportunity to shape our advocacy agenda, valuable services and discounts, and programs to develop leaders in Pennsylvania agriculture. Learn more and join at: www.pfb.com/members.