

In Loving Memory of
Christina Henry
Barnes

*Who passed away on this date July 16, 2023,
Three years ago today*

Help us, Lord, to understand as to why you needed "Chrissy" that day more than we did. She really had her life on track. She went down many roads before she found her calling. She started out babysitting at her house for her neighbors, then she came to her Dad for help how to open a day care center and that's where she took off. You've never seen a woman so happy, from newborn to 1st & 2nd grade. I'll bet you made yourself right at home when Jesus opened the Golden Gates of Heaven so you could help with all the babies. We know you and Dad are watching over us until we meet again.

"Never to be forgotten."

Happy 3rd birthday, my precious child.
