

In Loving Memory of Louis Connor

Dad,

One year ago today,
our world changed forever.
Losing you left an ache that time can never heal. Your absence is loud, even in the quiet moments.
The day you left us, something inside us broke that can never be fixed.

We miss your voice, your hugs
— everything about you
— each and every day.

We know heaven gained you, but we lost a little of ourselves that day.
We love you, Dad, more than words could ever hold.

We carry your love and strength with us always.

Your life was a blessing;
your memory a treasure.
You are loved beyond words and missed beyond measure.

Love,
Your three favorites
