The next day. On May 3, 2022, the team had a game in Jackson. and had arrived at the field and were still seated in her vehicle when Ryan's approached the driver side of her car. appeared uncomfortable and apprehensive. She apologized to about the incident. told her the only thing she wanted was that something similar did not happen to anyone else. asked how he was doing, and told her that he was okay. talked about how Coach Ryan was upset and could not sleep, eat and was physically sick. She repeated concern about his upcoming election for Sheriff and how it was bad timing. asked what Ryan could do for them. said she just did not want it to happen again. offered to pay for pants. replied that it would be a nice gesture because they were new pants. told her to buy a new pair and bring her the receipt. That conversation ended.

On May 5, 2022, arrived at the next practice. approached the passenger side of her car and said she had something for and they both walked back to car. tried to give fifty dollars. told her that was too much money, and twenty dollars would cover the cost of the pants. was insistent and told her to take it. said she slipped the money back into jacket pocket. began to quiz about her family, where grew up, what school went to, how many siblings does she have. said she did not know what intent was. She thought it was either to get to know her or "get to her." described demeanor as sheer panic any time had been approached by her. She thought was trying to fix it one way or another. I asked to tell me what she meant by fix it. thought it was to re-assure that would not be speaking to law enforcement.

Again, brought up how bad Coach Ryan was feeling, how the boys are coming together as a team and how Ryan and son, was getting along well with asked what they could do for her. Due to the line of questioning, thought it was based around things was worried about. talked about her uncle who
