

THE STATE OF GEORGIA

EXECUTIVE ORDER

BY THE GOVERNOR:

EXTENDING THE STATE OF EMERGENCY FOR PETROLEUM SUPPLY DISRUPTIONS

- WHEREAS: On September 28, 2026, due to ongoing disruptions to global petroleum supply chains, I issued Executive Order No. 09.28.26.01, declaring a State of Emergency for Petroleum Supply Disruptions and suspending the collection of the state motor fuel taxes; and
- WHEREAS: On October 6, 2026, I issued Executive Order 10.06.26.01, amending the State of Emergency for Petroleum Supply Disruptions by directing the State Revenue Commissioner to waive the enforcement of the penalties incurred for the selling, delivery, and consumption of dyed fuel oil for highway use set forth in Code Section 48-9-16(e); and
- WHEREAS: The upcoming Thanksgiving holiday brings elevated travel and corresponding upward pressure on gas prices from the increased demand; and
- WHEREAS: Code Section 38-3-51 vests the Governor with the power to renew any state of emergency for a period not to exceed thirty (30) days; and
- WHEREAS: In consultation with state economic officials, I have determined that a state of emergency exists and that the following actions are necessary and appropriate to protect the continued strength of Georgia's economy and provide for the health, safety, and welfare of Georgia's residents and visitors.

NOW, THEREFORE, PURSUANT TO CODE SECTION 38-3-51, AND
THE AUTHORITY VESTED IN ME AS GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA, IT IS HEREBY

ORDERED: That the State of Emergency for Petroleum Supply Disruptions declared by Executive Order No. 09.28.26.01 and amended by Executive Order No. 10.06.26.01, shall be renewed for twenty-five (25) days, and shall terminate on November 30, 2026, at 11:59 P.M., unless otherwise renewed or terminated by a subsequent executive order.

ORDERED: That this Order shall be effective upon signature.

This 24th day of October 2026.
