Hey Darlin'

I remember when you were little, we were all at the local swimming pool and you liked to be tossed in the air and land in water, dozens of times. You would say "Just one more time Daddy" and of course I would always do it. Then all of a sudden you're gone but very much in our hearts. "Just one more time, Daddy." Yeah, Darlin, I wish I could, I wish I could.

We love and miss you, Mom, Dad, Joe, Tony
