Vox Obscura: From the Shadows

Artwork of Forrest Grey and Nolan Smith

Maquoketa artists, Forrest Grey and Nolan Smith, have joined forces to present art from the spookier side of life.

Forrest and Nolan have an affinity for the spooky, celebrating their marriage on Halloween Day. Both artists are self-taught. Nolan will primarily display charcoal and colored pencil pieces. Forrest will focus on oil pastel, graphite, and other materials.

The exhibition will also feature art from the The Dubuque Area Arts Collective (DAAC), a non-profit organization whose mission is to provide opportunities for growth and development for new and emerging artists in Dubuque and the surrounding communities.

OPENING ARTISTS' RECEPTION SAT., SEPT. 12, 5 -7 PM
ADMISSION IS FREE - DONATIONS APPRECIATED
