

We Need a National Business Tax.

My prediction is we will have it in the next generation. It would help with the current financial situation.