Tucked away in a remote part of Groveland, so remote it takes traveling down a dirt road that exists past the end of the county's maintenance of it, exists a well kept secret, one that is has harbored for nearly 40 years. Groveland has harbored a secret celebrity; or to be more exact, that secret celebrity has made Groveland his safe harbor. Now, however, that secret — which isn't a secret by those in the know — may soon become public knowledge.

His name may not be known to many, but within the movie industry — particularly those who do the stunts — the mention of Kim Kahana, now 93 years old, elicits awes of respect and admiration.

But what brought him to Groveland from the kleig lights of Hollywood?

“Actually, I came here to retire,” said Kahana. By the 1980s the industry had changed, much of it not for the better, he said, and he had long wearied of the daily grind, despite the glamorous aspects working alongside many of Hollywood's greats — a fact attested

Attorney Patrick Smith Radio Show Now on 17 Stations

For the last 16 years, Patrick Smith has served Clermont as a local estate planning attorney and occasional radio guest host. It's the last year, though, that has brought his knowledge and outreach to the entire state and across the country — this time returning as host of his own call-in legal advice show. Saturday mornings from 8-9 you can listen Live on 102.5 FM and AM760 and call in with you legal questions. Broadcasts can also be streamed Live on Facebook and at theBoneOnline.com. The office and website are always available to you: (352) 204-0305 www.AttorneyPatrickSmith.com

Unchanged these his last 16 years of practice is Attorney Smith's flat fee model of Estate Planning, including $75 Wills. He continues to be available free of charge to speak to your church or social club on a wide range of topics, including charitable giving, estate planning for Florida residents, and homestead and tax planning. The previous year's radio content can be found and streamed at www.AttorneyPatrickSmith.com.
