

Welcome to unique décor, gifts and more

Carrie Keipp and Lori Lofton

insider's tip: Appointments are encouraged.

"We help guests find what's fresh and new, fits their style and meets their interest," Carrie said. "One way to do so is with unique or traditional florals. Our lit florals add a nice touch to a tablescape or mantle. We also do a lot with greenery to brighten the home and bring the outdoors in – a welcomed sight after so much snow!"

Because of The Foyer's large inventory, design pieces can go home with customers the same day. "Then, all the homeowner has to do is confidently recreate the decor arrangement or custom piece placement in their own home," Carrie said. "Guests who are looking for gifts can choose from jewelry, small handbags, fragrant candles, journals, coasters, a large selection of accent pillows and table runners, and so much more!"

Now is the perfect time to get a jump on gift shopping and home decorating for spring. After all, Valentine's Day, Easter and Mother's Day are right around the corner.

"Whether you're looking for statement pieces you won't find anywhere else or fun gift ideas, come see us. We have it all!"

A home's foyer is where guests are welcomed. More than just an entryway, foyers feature artwork, seating and other decorative accents that reflect the homeowner's style.

At The Foyer in Chesterfield, owner Carrie Keipp and her team welcome guests with one goal: "We want your home to be not only unique but uniquely yours."

"Just a few trendy pieces placed in the right position in your home, or paired with something you already have, will make a statement," Carrie said. She and designer Lori Lofton offer free in-store design consultations. But here's an
