"With the diversity of experience we offer in all services we provide, I have complete confidence that we can meet and exceed expectations. We try to make our services affordable enough that many of my customers are on a routine maintenance schedule," Tim said.

County House Washing and Painting is a service-oriented company with a focus on quality work. Tim is a hands-on owner who is highly involved in both the business management and on-the-job aspects of his company.

From interiors to exterior siding, decks, fences, roofs and concrete, the company can effectively clean or refresh any home or building. The company's goal is 100% satisfaction. Many customers of County House Washing and Painting have utilized its services many times.

"I enjoy providing an honest business and establishing a clientele of repeat customers on a professional and personal level," Tim said.

Locally owned and fully insured, County House Washing and Painting provides free estimates and offers senior discounts and military rates.

"You can feel good knowing that you are working with a local company you know and trust," Tim said.
