Some things you can get only at a local, family-owned hardware store – like decades of product knowledge and expertise and a level of customer service reserved for neighbors and friends. That's exactly what the customers of Schneider True Value Hardware in St. Peters are. Having proudly served area home and business owners since 1878, the Schneider family has earned a reputation for giving personalized service and expert advice. Plus, Schneider True Value is a Stihl Dealer, offering outdoor power equipment and battery-operated hand-held tools. There's never any guesswork when you're shopping at Schneider True Value and you never have to go in search of someone to help you. Come in and experience the difference!
