MICHAEL CHANG (23-Across) is the youngest man to have won a major tennis tournament singles title, the 1989 French Open at age 17. The many commercial uses of LARCHES (95-Across) include playground equipment, industrial biomass energy, and aromatherapy oil. The ANHINGA (12-Down), native to the warmer regions of the Americas, is also known as the snakebird, due to its being visible only from the neck up while swimming, resembling a snake ready to strike.
