General Motors merged its DELCO (20-Across) auto parts unit with its AC Spark Plugs in 1974. The UVEA (21-Across), the pigmented middle layer of the eye, is between the inner retina and outer cornea. In 1682, Edmond HALLEY (95-Across) used Newton's law of gravitation to predict that the comet eventually named for him would return in 1758, which it did.
