

PETER LU, REALTOR®

THE PETER LU TEAM

When it comes to navigating the ever-changing world of real estate, it's vital to have an expert at your side who has the experience to provide guidance each step of the way.

Peter Lu with exp Realty has been helping folks buy and sell homes since 2006. He has experienced the market's highs and lows and has had great success helping his clients navigate through the good, the bad and the ugly. He is committed to helping clients find the home of their dreams without the stress and worry the process can entail.

Whether you are looking to buy or sell a home, Peter's passion for real estate and in-depth knowledge of the market makes him an invaluable partner. The Peter Lu Team prides themselves on their service, high standards and exceptional rates. Peter and his team have worked with clients from across St. Louis and West County, and in a myriad of municipalities. Whether you're in the market for a new home, condominium or acres of beautiful land for a personal project or endeavor, Peter and his team have inside knowledge and experience about sought-after locations. For those who don't know where to start, skip the guesswork and let Peter and his team help match you with one of the area's many available properties. Their expertise even extends to locations like Rolla and St. James.

Trust a real estate professional who will have your best interests in mind throughout every step of the process. Call Peter today at (314) 662-6578, and experience the difference first-hand.
