

The cost burden of housing in Boone County in 2022

In Missouri, approximately 44.76% of renters and 21.14% of homeowners are cost burdened, meaning they spend more than 30% of their income on gross rent and homeowner costs respectively. Approximately 21.74% of renters and 7.63% of homeowners are severely cost burdened, meaning they spend over 50% of their income on gross rent and homeowner costs respectively. For residents in these groups, their health and well-being may be affected by high housing costs.

Source: U.S. Census Bureau, 2022 5-year ACS estimates; Amarach Planning Services