Re: Resignation

It is with a multitude of emotions that I write to inform you of my resignation as President/CEO of Salinas Valley Health, effective at a date to be determined. This decision has been made after careful consideration and is accompanied by tremendous gratitude for my tenure of ten enriching years with this exceptional organization.

Reflecting on our accomplishments to date fills me with immense pride. Together, we have achieved remarkable milestones that have significantly impacted the health and well-being of our community.

The realization that there is never a "perfect" time to step away from a role I love has weighed heavily on my decision. Yet, I am confident that change, while challenging, is an opportunity for growth and renewal for both the organization and myself.

I want to express my heartfelt appreciation for the trust, support, and collaboration I have experienced during my tenure as your President/CEO. Serving this organization has been a profound honor and privilege, and I am genuinely grateful for the incredible journey we have shared.

I am continually impressed with the resilience and unwavering dedication of the Salinas Valley Health team. Your commitment to excellence and your tireless efforts in delivering exceptional care to our community have been nothing short of extraordinary. I will carry with me forever the inspiration you have provided through your exemplary performance, unwavering resilience, and relentless drive.

As I step down from my role, I have no doubt that the future holds even greater accomplishments and successes for this organization. With your exceptional team spirit and steadfast dedication, I am confident that you will overcome any challenges that may arise and continue to thrive in your pursuit of excellence.

I have the utmost confidence in each and every one of you, and I am excited to witness the continued growth and success of Salinas Valley Health in the years to come. I remain committed to contributing to the success of Salinas Valley Health during the transition period and beyond.

Thank you once again for the remarkable years we have spent together.
