OTHER TERMS OF AGREEMENT

The parties agree ^{to waive} ~~that~~ a Pre-sentence Investigation Report (PSI) is necessary.

The parties ~~reserve~~ the right to argue for or against any special conditions of probation recommended in the PSI. Unless such notice is waived by the opposing party, written objections to any special conditions proposed in the PSI shall be filed with the Court no later than three days prior to the Sentencing Hearing.

By signing below and by accepting the benefit of this agreement the Defendant expressly waives any right to appeal and any claims for post-conviction relief, except claims for ineffective assistance of counsel. Defendant understands all potential lesser included offenses and waives any right to be found guilty of a lesser included offense. Defendant further waives any right, as provided in 46-18-903 M.C.A., to make application for sentence review.

Defendant specifically agrees that she is willing and able to pay the monetary obligations and restitution under this agreement, and agrees that payment of restitution is a condition necessary for

1 rehabilitation of the victims under Mont. Code Ann. § 46-18-201 (4)(n).
2 All of the methods for collection of restitution provided under Sections
3 Mont. Code Ann. § 46-18-241 through Mont. Code Ann. § 46-18-249
4 shall apply, including garnishment of wages and interception of tax 5 refunds.

6 The State's recommendation is specifically conditioned upon the 7 fact that the Defendant's criminal history as represented by Defense 8 Counsel and set out in the State's file is accurate. The State's 9 recommendation is also contingent upon the Defendant committing no 10 new crimes and following all conditions of bail and release. If the 11 Defendant is charged with additional crimes or if the Defendant violates 12 conditions of bail or release between the date of the Defendant's 13 signature on this Plea Agreement and sentencing, the Defendant agrees 14 and stipulates that any such violation will render void the State's 15 agreement to recommend an "appropriate disposition" sentence under 16 Mont. Code Ann. § 46-12-211(1)(b). The Defendant agrees and 17 stipulates that in such an event, the State shall be allowed to 18 recommend any sentence up to the maximum possible sentence.
19 However, the Defendant further stipulates that, following a finding that 20 he has violated the terms of this agreement, a change in the State's 21 sentence recommendation will not constitute a "good cause" basis for 22 the Defendant to withdraw his plea(s) to the charged offense(s) pursuant 23 to Mont. Code Ann. § 46-15-105(2). In short, though this plea 24 agreement is currently subject to the provisions of Mont. Code Ann. §
25 46-12-211(1)(b), if the Defendant is charged with any additional crimes 26 or violates conditions of bail or release between now and sentencing, the Defendant agrees to be subject to the provisions of Mont. Code Ann. § 46-12-211(1)(c).

This offer expires on 10/27/26, unless changed in writing. The recommendation is conditioned upon the Defendant breaking no additional laws or violating conditions of release before sentencing.

ACCEPTANCE

I the undersigned Defendant, after full discussion of the charge(s) and penalties with my defense counsel, and after being fully advised of my rights to a jury trial, my understanding of my right to persist in my plea of not guilty and

1 to demand a jury trial, do hereby accept the above offer and agree to enter
2 plea(s) of guilty to the charge(s) specified. I hereby knowingly waive all
3 objection to any substantive defect in said charge(s) and my right to a jury trial 4 on the charge(s). I further understand that the offer made by the State is 5 dependent upon the accuracy of my criminal history as I have represented it.
6 My criminal history is as set out in the State's file. I understand that the Court 7 is not bound by this Agreement and may impose the maximum penalty for the 8 offense(s) charged, but that if the Court chooses not to follow this plea
9 bargain, and I have not violated the terms of this Agreement, I will be allowed 10 to withdraw my plea(s) of guilty to the charge(s) specified.
