

NORTHEAST
PUBLIC SEWER DISTRICT

ENGINEERING TECHNICIAN

Northeast Public Sewer District is seeking a full-time Engineering Technician. This position will work on engineering activities in connection with sewer utilities including engineering design, GIS mapping projects, reviews of plans and inspections. Individual will both design and manage new sewer construction projects and GPS assets linked to the District Mapping/asset management databases. Minimum Experience/Education: Two or more years as an Engineering Technician in a public utility or in civil engineering consulting. Associate degree in engineering or related field preferred. Knowledge of basic sewer design and construction requirements. Also requires a valid driver's license.

Compensation: Depending on qualifications and experience.

To Apply: Apply by email to bobh@northeastsewer.org, fax to 636-343-7904, or mail application or resume to:
1041 Gravois Road, Fenton, MO 63026.

Northeast Public Sewer District is an Equal Opportunity Employer