

GRAPHIC PACKAGING

INTERNATIONAL

Graphic Packaging International, a leading folding carton manufacturer, is searching for a Maintenance & Engineering Manager at its Pacific Mo location. Principal duties include managing plant-wide maintenance and capital program maximizing asset reliability, uptime, and cost effectiveness with available resources. Provides long-range planning for the facility and equipment needs including capital and major repairs. Implements and oversees predictive, preventative and corrective maintenance programs. Uses other maintenance disciplines in the development and application of reliability engineering, root-cause analysis and troubleshooting of equipment and processes. Coaches and develops training plans for all maintenance technicians, supervises Maintenance Supervisor, Storeroom, and Planner functions. Training in or knowledge of SQF prerequisites including GMP, Food Defense preferred.

This position interacts with outside contractors, parts suppliers & reports directly to the Plant Manager. Manufacturing experience required preferably in the packaging industry. College degree, technical degrees or equivalent work experience are required. Prior field experience in electrical or mechanical maintenance of packaging converting equipment or equivalent combination of education and experience highly preferred. Must be a strong leader with exceptional communication, organizational & motivational skills and have the ability to motivate people to perform at high levels.

GPI offers a competitive salary and benefit package including health & life insurance, 401K and more. Qualified candidates only may apply online @ www.graphicpkg.com

GRAPHIC PACKAGING INTERNATIONAL is an Equal Opportunity Employer Minorities/Women/Veterans/Disabled