

Christopher Glen Henson, 56, of French Village, MO, died on June 6th, 2026.

Born on October 13th, 1969, in Festus, he was the son of Donna (Friedmeyer) Henson and Melvin Henson of French Village. Chris spent the last 26 years of his life as a general contractor and owner of Two Good Buddies Contracting, during which he was respected and admired by his long-standing clientele. Along with building houses and relationships, he had a fierce love for God, family and BBQ. He also enjoyed singing, being outdoors, watching football and baseball, and all things Bigfoot. Chris was an uncommonly kind, selfless, hardworking, humble, and godly man of impressive integrity. He leaves behind a simple yet profound legacy: Love God, love others. He loved with a quiet intensity and left a lasting impression on the lives and communities around him. It is difficult to capture the impact and character of Chris Henson in such a limited format. He will be dearly missed.

In addition to his mother and father, he is survived by his cherished wife of 36 years: Tara (Chotrow) Henson of French Village; three children: Christopher (Claire) Henson of Festus, Bryon (Sara) Henson of Herculaneum, and Corey Henson of French Village; five grandchildren: Haddie, Leo, Maebel, Clyde and Nora Henson of Festus and Herculaneum; one sibling: Dawn (Travis) Gilmer of Hillsboro; and many other family members and friends.

A memorial service will be held on July 9th at 12 P.M. at Crosspoint Church, 5001 Little Rock Rd., St. Louis, MO 63128. In honor of Chris, the family requests guests to dress casually and comfortably.
