2021-22 CWAC Girls' Basketball All-Conference Team

Below are the all-conference teams and specialty award winners, as nominated and selected by the seven head coaches of the Central Washington Athletic Conference for the 2021-22 girls' basketball season. Senior guard Dylan Philip of Ellensburg High School was chosen as the Player of the Year, marking the second sport this academic year in which she has been tabbed as Player of the Year. Philip, who has signed to continue her basketball career at Montana State University, was also the girls' soccer Offensive Player of the Year in the fall. Second-year head coach Adolfo Coronado of Othello High School was selected as Coach of the Year after leading the Huskies to a third-place finish in the regular-season standings. Ephrata High School was also selected to receive the team sportsmanship award.
