

Lithium Mining in East Texas

Companies are searching for lithium in the Smackover Formation, a thin band of brine running through N.E. Texas

Oct. '23: Standard Lithium reports the highest grade lithium sample found in North America.

2023: East Texas Natural Resources, a Texas based lithium company, begins leasing brine in Morris and Cass County.

March '23: Standard Lithium discovers high-grade lithium brine in Cass County and leases 20,000 mineral acres by 2024.

Standard
Lithium

East Texas
Natural
Resources