

A depleted department

The Public Works Department today is 60% smaller than it was 30 years ago. The maintenance section of the department has been cut even more dramatically.

