"Carmouche's money machine is now deployed in favor of Metairie judge Hans Liljeberg."

"If Liljeberg ends up as Carmouche's fourth stooge on the seven-member Supreme Court, that's the effective end of the oil and gas industry in this state and all the jobs it carries."

SEVEN DAYS • HOME DELIVERED • LOUISIANA OWNED

Whoever wins the Supreme Court seat vacated by former Justice Greg Guidry ... will almost certainly be opining on some of the state's most expensive and potentially consequential lawsuits. The rulings on those suits could lead to gargantuan payouts ... and rich paydays for the plaintiffs' attorneys. They could also cost oil and gas companies hundreds of millions of dollars.

Hughes accused of trying to buy support
for Liljeberg

Attorneys who represent landowners suing oil and gas companies over long-ago environmental pollution are big supporters of Hughes, who is currently keen to get a kindred spirit elected to a vacant seat on the state Supreme Court.
