Promise Scholars
Postsecondary Transition Program

Are you a senior at Barbourville, Corbin, Lynn Camp or Knox Central High School?

Do you plan to attend one of the following colleges in the fall?

- Somerset Community College
- Southeast Community and Technical College
- Eastern Kentucky University
- Morehead State University
- Union College
- University of the Cumberlands

Are you interested in getting a complimentary laptop computer and joining a supportive community of other students from your area to make the transition to college life even better?

If you answered YES, consider applying to Knox Promise Neighborhood’s Promise Scholars Program.

Application Deadline: May 29, 2020

Apply online at www.berea.college/2020PromiseScholar

(See program details on the back of the flyer.)

Questions?

Contact Your Promise School Coordinator

- Knox Central High School: Robin Wright, wrightro@berea.edu
- Lynn Camp High School: Arthur Canada, canadaa@berea.edu
- Barbourville High School: Kara Beth Thompson, thompsonk2@berea.edu
- Corbin High School: Heather Martinez, martinezh@berea.edu

Postsecondary Navigator Contact Information

- University of the Cumberlands: Korey Bruck, korey.bruck@ucumberlands.edu
- Union College: Glenn Baker, gbaker@unionky.edu
- Eastern Kentucky University: Amy Floyd, floyda@berea.edu
- Morehead State University: Tammie Sanders, sanderst@berea.edu
- Somerset Community College: Tammie Sanders, sanderst@berea.edu
- Southeast Community and Technical College: Tammie Sanders, sanderst@berea.edu