	POST-ARREST COMPLAINT
	Charge 1: MURDER
	On this date Kentucky State Police Post 7 was contacted by Trooper Brandon Scalf. Trooper Scalf informed that he had been contacted by Ricky McQueen. Mr. McQueen advised he had shot the "piece of shit" and told him to send the coroner over to his house to get the body. Kentucky State Police Troopers arrived and made contact with Mr. McQueen. Troopers discovered the deceased body of Billy Ray Isaacs just outside the front door of Mr. McQueen's residence. A search warrant was obtained for the residence. Mr. McQueen advised he shot Mr. Isaac's when he brought two weapons (rifle and pistol) into his residence and asked about his daughter's phone. Mr. McQueen advised he stood up and fired a single shot at Mr. Isaac's with his Taurus .357 magnum revolver. Video footage from the residence shows Mr. Isaac's entering the residence with a 30-30 caliber rifle and a beer. Eight minutes later the video doorbell shows Mr. Isaac's holding a cigarette and a cigarette lighter and appears to be leaving the residence. Seconds later Mr. Isaac's was shot. Mr. Isaac's was pronounced deceased at the scene by Jackson County Coroner.
