Meet Ashley

As a Norfolk native, Ashley Klawitter combines years of real estate experience with a genuine passion for helping buyers and sellers navigate one of life's biggest decisions. Her local knowledge, strong community connections, and client-first approach allow her to provide guidance that is both personal and practical, while reflecting her deep commitment to the community she's proud to call home.

Ashley believes buying or selling a home should feel exciting, not overwhelming. That's why she is committed to providing honest communication, personalized guidance, and a client-first approach that helps people make confident decisions from the first conversation to the closing table. Her goal is to create an experience that is smooth, informed, and enjoyable while building relationships that last well beyond the sale.

Outside of real estate, Ashley enjoys spending time with her husband, Andy, their children, Fischer and Rhen, and their dog, Alice. Whether she's cheering from the sidelines at her kids' activities, enjoying time with family, or making memories around Northeast Nebraska, Ashley values the relationships and sense of community that make Norfolk such a special place to call home. When you're ready for your next chapter, Ashley is here to help you make the right move.
