"My Mother Pieced Quilts"

Seventh grade students read a poem in English class called "My Mother Pieced Quilts" by Teresa Palomo Acosta. It tells the story of a daughter remembering her mother patching together quilts to survive cold winters. Students responded and wrote a poem from the mother's perspective. They also designed quilt pieces to represent themselves and pieced them together for a display.

The mission of Norfolk Public Schools is to prepare all students to pursue their goals for the future.
