Revamped Cardinals Squeeze Out Double Win Over Cubs, 5 to 4 and 6 to 5

Collins Ends Long Battle

Ripper's Home Run in 11th Inning Gives Nightcap to Cards

St. Louis, Mo., June 8 (AP). — A revamped lineup brought dividends Saturday to Manager Frankie Frisch as his Cardinals snapped out of a three-game losing streak to nose out the Chicago Cubs twice, before a ladies' day crowd of 20 thousand. The world champions took the first game, 5 to 4, and eked out in the 11-inning nightcap, 6 to 5.

Frisch returned to second base, shifted Pepper Martin to center field, put Whitehead at third, and benched Captain Leo Durocher, the shortstop, in favor of Charley Gelbert.

Wild pitches and fumbles by the Chicago pitchers, Lonnie Warneke and Tex Carleton, led to three Cardinal runs in the first game.

Ripper Collins, duplicating Joe Medwick's fourth inning feat, knocked a long home run at the start of the eleventh inning to break up the long second contest.

Telephone Men Play at Happy.

More than 250 golf bugs teed off Saturday at Happy Hollow club, of which 150 were telephone men. Parley Hyde, former club member who was a visitor Saturday, had rounds of 76 and 75 for medal honors. He tallied the 76 in the phone competition to win the low gross prize. Paul Wright's 79 was low among the club players.

Low net winners among the telephone crew were W. O. Anderson, 71; John Borrison, 73; Dick Young, 74. W. A. Wencel won the driving contest, J. O. Williams the putting event and L. B. Horn the "most strokes under average." Professional Johnny Morris gave a demonstration on how not to play golf. A banquet followed the day's links chores.

Holmes Leader at Lakewood.

Al Holmes bagged a 76 to top the list Saturday at the Lakewood Country club. Frank Haney tallied 79, Bert Waddington 83, Ben Simpson 83 and Frank Wheeler 84. Waddington captured the blind bogey event with his 83-0—83.

Taylor Sets Pace at Dundee Links.

Art Taylor carded a 75, Bob Doran a 79, Saturday at the Dundee golf course. One hundred and 40 toured the links. A blind bogey event is billed today.

Industrial Play at Valley View.

Twelve foursomes of Baker Ice Machine employes and five foursomes representing the Standard Oil clerical force battled Valley View's hazards Saturday.

Mark Fowler reported a 68 for the day's best shooting. Blind bogey play is on tap today.

Chairmen Picked at Elmwood Park.

Committee chairmen have been chosen by members of the Johnny Goodman Golf club at Elmwood park as follows: Charles Walther, programs and activities; A. B. Alley, fairways and tees; Charlie Frost, greens; Frank Nelson, clubhouse and lockers; W. H. Dressler, finances; Art G. Fales, publicity; Al Holleroft, membership; Ben Yousem, handicaps.

Low gross, low net, blind bogey and several other prize events will be staged Sunday, according to President John Gibb.

Prize Competition at Miller Links.

A flag tourney and blind bogey contest are scheduled today for Miller park linksmen.

Dodge Park Lads in Trial Rounds.

Dodge park golfers Saturday began qualifying for the June tournament. The test play will continue today and also next Saturday and Sunday. Professional Jimmy Thomas counted 125 noses Saturday.

Max Butcher, the pitching sensation of the Texas league, is performing for Galveston on option from the Baltimore Orioles.

As Douglas Legion Play Began

First local competition in the statewide American Legion baseball program was offered Saturday. The photographer visited the Alamito-Valley game at Valley for the two pictures printed above.

The top picture shows Ostrand of the Alamitos trying a bunt in the fourth inning. The ball was dropped neatly, but it rolled foul. The catcher is Harrier of Valley.

In the bottom photo Owen Smith is shown crossing first base in the eighth inning. He got the first hit off Baltzer of the Alimitos. The first sacker is Nuttman.

Alamito Nine Wins Opener

Bennington, Papillion Also Victorious in Legion Loop Games

The Alamitos of Omaha, Bennington and Papillion won the first games as the District 8 league, American Legion baseball opened Saturday.

The Alamitos were most impressive, disposing of Valley by 22 to 0 at Valley. The home boys haven't had much time for practice to date, but will be improved in the next few weeks.

Baltzer fanned 13 in seven innings and gave but one hit. James finished, giving one hit and fanning four. Smith, a chunky lefthander, was handled roughly. He worked five frames and then gave way to Grebe. Montello, with two doubles, and Baltzer and Hall, each with a double and triple, contributed the long hits.

Papillion Wins in 10th.

Papio had to go into the tenth to beat Ralston, 12 to 10. In the last frame a walk and a single put the runs on base and Glen Kestler scored both men with a double. Only other extra base blows were two-basers by Rochard Bowman and Chuck Smith. The winners came up with a double play.

Frank Sanderholm, commander of the Benson post, threw the first ball for the Benson-Bennington game. Bennington won by 18 to 9. The Benson outfield got generous to bring about the downfall of Bob Dutcher who fanned 14 and pitched good ball.

Paulsen of the winners fanned 18 with his nifty curves. The game was a bit ragged, all in all, but the teams will improve.

Bush League Homer King Seems Fading After Knee Injury

Minneapolis, Minn., June 8 (AP). Joe Hauser, holder of the home run record for the big minors and perhaps for all professional baseball, seems to be fading as a slugging threat.

After hitting 69 circuit blows in 1933, Hauser broke a knee cap about midseason last year.

The injury apparently has affected his stance at the plate to the extent that his swing has been impaired, and he slipped back to the bench after 52 trips netted him a solitary home run and a comparatively puny batting average of .230.

Omaha Easily Takes Stakes

Mile-and-Half Event Is His Distance; Was 7 to 10 Favorite

BY AL COPELAND.

By Special Leased Wire.

Belmont Park, L. I., June 8.—William Woodward's Omaha again came into his own Saturday at Belmont Park when he won the Belmont stakes, worth $35,480.

Some 25 thousand race followers gave the triumph wild acclaim. The son of Gallant Fox was an odds-on favorite, quoted at 7 to 10. The victory gave him turdom's crown, including the Kentucky derby and the Preakness, previously earned only by Gallant Fox, in 1930, and Sir Barton in 1919.

Firethorn was second and Rosemont in the picture. Cold Shoulder was fourth and Sir Beverley, the winner's teammate, last of the quintet.

The race was run through a downpour which made the course sloppy so that the winner's performance of a mile and a half in 2:30 3-5 was a glistening one.

Going out of the back stretch Cold Shoulder was five lengths in front and showed no signs of stopping. Omaha was third. Midway round the bend, Rosemont was shot up into second place but this move proved but a flash. Straightened away, Firethorn took up the pace with Omaha at his flank and in a drive which lasted throughout the stretch, Jockey Saunders got Omaha up in the last sixteenth to go on to a win of a length and a half.

Harder's Bat Wins Contest

Mel's Single Brings in Winning Run in Battle with Browns

Cleveland, O., June 8 (AP).—The Cleveland Indians scored a 3-to-2 victory over the St. Louis Browns Saturday before a crowd of approximately five thousand. Tribe officials said the attendance was "normal" in view of the chilly weather and despite the reported hostility of local fandom as a result of the Walter Johnson-Willie Kamm-Glenn Myatt controversy.

Mel Harder, Cleveland hurler, scored in the third inning when Vosmik forced Knickerbocker, Bejma to Strange. Campbell brought in the Tribe's third marker in the fourth after doubling. Harder's single accounted for the tally.

Sox Win Homer Battle.

Chicago, June 8 (AP).—The White Sox, tailenders last year, continued their annoyance of the Detroit Tigers, last year's champions, Saturday by edging out the Tigers, 3 to 2, for their eighth victory in 10 meetings. All runs were the result of homers.
