Dallas Days 2025 events sure to delight

The three-day festival Dallas Days, typically the last weekend in July, returns in 2025 on July 25-27.

Nearly the entire downtown area makes way for festival events, from the Courthouse Lawn, stretching down Main Street, with performances moved to the Dallas Amphitheater and extra Sunday activities at Dallas City Park, including breakfast, art and a car show.

The activities during Dallas Days are designed to be a little something for everyone. Plan your visit and be sure not to miss the parade at 11 a.m. Saturday, the car show on Sunday morning, and a vendor's market all day, both days.

While you shop, send the youths through the Kids' Zone where there's games and inflatables. And the adults can stick around to quench their thirst and get a bit to eat at the beer garden and food truck row.

If you enjoy eclectic live music, enjoy concerts and dancing daily on the County Courthouse lawn and at the Dallas Amphitheater.

Event details are subject to change. To find up-to-date event details, activities, and signs, visit the Dallas Days Facebook page at www.facebook.com/dallasoregon-days.
