

How Do I Access the Archives (Web, Historical and E-Paper)?

- To access our Web Archives, visit <https://www.postandcourier.com/archives/>
- To access our Historical Archives, click on the “My Account” navigation item and select “Archives” in the drop-down, or you can copy and paste this URL: <https://www.postandcourier.com/archive-search/>

The screenshot shows the top of the The Post and Courier website. The header includes the newspaper's name, founding year (1803), Pulitzer Prize status, current temperature (77° FAIR), and a Roper St. Francis Healthcare logo. The navigation bar contains links for E-EDITION, OBITUARIES, NEWSLETTERS, BUY & SELL, MY ACCOUNT, and a SUBSCRIBE button. A user profile for LAURA JAMES is visible. A dropdown menu is open under MY ACCOUNT, listing options like BECOME A MEMBER, MANAGE YOUR SUBSCRIPTION, SUBSCRIBER FAQ, YOUR REWARDS, FAQs, ACCESS E-EDITION, ARCHIVES (highlighted), ORDER MAGAZINES, EMAIL NEWSLETTERS, CONTACT US, MOBILE APPS, and SOCIAL MEDIA.

Archive Search | 1995 - Present

The Post & Courier's News Archive search contains staff-written, and other selected articles, from January 1, 1995 to the present. All articles published within the past 30 days are free of charge. There is a small fee for complete articles retrieved from our archive that are older than 30 days.
