

Dear Loftis:

Let me start by telling you who I am. My name is ~~I~~ I am James "Cook" Newland's girlfriend, your ~~the~~ alleged second victim.

I'm in rehab currently working a 12 step program. I'm currently on 9-12. Step 9 includes making amends. An amends is not like saying I'm sorry, it's acknowledging my wrongs in an attempt to right them.

I need to thank you for the position you have put me in because it has changed the direction of my life.

I selfishly in an attempt to play God planned out a retaliation against you. I wanted to be present at all your trial dates so I could make sure you saw me in hopes it would make you feel bad. I slandered your name to make myself feel better. I had no right to. I judged you for being a sick person when I ~~was~~ was sick myself.

I used you & the situation to sit in sorrow ~~that~~ that I could do nothing about.
I judged & tried to control the situation & I don't even know what actually happened.
More than anything I regret these wrongs I have done to you. As part of my recovery it is important that I make amends in any possible way I am able to. I will be praying for you, hang in there! :)
