

Confidentiality Agreement

This agreement is between SouthernCarolina Regional Development Alliance ("Alliance"), and its individual Board of Directors, Investors, Advisory Members, Committee Members and any other person or body entitled to or involved in confidential materials and information that may be revealed in dealings and meetings within the Alliance activities.

Due to the sensitivity of projects and companies that are associated with the Alliance, it is extremely important that any person privileged with proprietary information be obligated to maintain the confidence of such information.

Any information received as confidential, including executive session materials, whether in written form or communicated orally, will not be disclosed to any third party or entity, without prior consent of the disclosing party.

This agreement is binding upon each party as well as its successors.

I have read the Confidentiality Agreement in its entirety and, in consideration of being granted access to the information covered by the Confidentiality Agreement, agree to be bound by its terms.
