FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FEBRUARY 1, 2022

2022 TAX FILING SEASON OPENS JANUARY 24, 2022
AND E-FILING OF CERTAIN FORMS 1040 NOW AVAILABLE AT www.myguamtax.com

Barrigada, GU – The Guam Department of Revenue & Taxation (DRT) announced that the 2022 income tax filing season began on Monday, January 24, 2022. This is the date that DRT began accepting 2021 tax year returns and is in line with the date that the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) also began the nation's tax season. The due date for filing of returns is Monday, April 18, 2022.

Payments by Direct Deposit

This filing season certain taxpayers will have the option to receive their refunds by direct deposit. DRT reminds taxpayers to ensure that their bank account information is accurate. Any errors may result in delays in refund processing.

Forms 1040

Hard copies of forms are available at DRT's Income Tax Branch however Guam Forms 1040 and 1040SR can be accessed at www.myguamtax.com and www.guamtax.com. For more forms and instructions please visit www.irs.gov or consult with a tax professional.

E-Filing of Certain Forms 1040 Now Available at www.myguamtax.com

E-Filing of certain Forms 1040 can now be down. DRT opened up the e-filing portal on February 1, 2022. DRT encourages taxpayers to file their Forms 1040 online.

The online Form 1040 was expanded to allow for more taxpayers to be able to file online. You will be able to e-file your 2021 Guam form 1040 at www.myguamtax.com.

Form 1040 E-Filing Program enhanced features include:
