

Areas Targeted for Assemblages

Numerous neighborhoods in Prince William County have received letters or phone calls attempting to assemble their properties into a package for residential or data center development. Some have accepted the offers, but more have turned them down.

