Associated Press Leased Wire Report

VOL. XXVII.—NO. 266. DAVENPORT, IOWA, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1913. PRICE: THREE CENTS.

COLISEUM, BUILT FOR SAENGERFEST YEARS AGO, IS DESTROYED BY FIRE

NOTHING SAVED FROM THE DAVENPORT BUILDING WHICH BURNED LIKE TINDER

LOSS IS ABOUT $35,000

First Floor Occupied by Kesling-Henke Company and Second Held Under a Twenty Year Lease by a Company

ESTIMATED LOSS

Coliseum Co.	$17,000
Kesling-Henke Co.	15,000
Omar Block	500
George Grunskopf	500
G. Petersen	1,000
J. A. Zeman	2,500
Davenport Taxicab Co.	3,000

INSURANCE

Coliseum Co.	$8,000
Kesling-Henke Co.	9,000
J. A. Zeman	1,500
G. Petersen	1,000

Fire, which completely destroyed the Davenport Coliseum at Fourth and Myrtle streets, started about 11 o'clock last night and furnished one of the most spectacular blazes ever seen in Davenport. The loss is estimated at about $35,000. The insurance will reach about $18,000.

"The loss will be between $35,000 and $40,000" said C. F. Keding today. "We had a large amount of valuable machinery and wood-work in the building."

The entire building was of wood and contained the wood-working shop of the Kesling-Henke company on the first floor, besides two paint shops. The second floor was used for conventions, concerts and as a dance hall and was the largest hall of its kind in the tri-cities.

The fire had gained a good start before the companies of the fire department arrived and it was soon seen that the building could not be saved. The attention of the firemen was then turned to the buildings in the neighborhood in an effort to save them from destruction and the efforts proved successful. The damage was confined to the Coliseum building itself.

The fire is supposed to have started near the boiler room, which was in a small building just at the south of the west end of the main building and connected by a small passage way. There were numerous piles of shavings in the carpenter shop and 100 gallons of varnish, which had just been received a few days ago was in the paint and auto repair shop of Omar Block. It is thought that the fire reached these combustibles in the interior before it was discovered, and when the firemen arrived the whole interior of the first floor was a mass of flames.

The fire quickly communicated to the second floor, the main auditorium, and was soon eating its way to the roof. It was one of the hottest blazes that the firemen have ever had to fight here, owing to the highly combustible character of the structure and its contents. The heat could scarcely be stood across Fourth street in the yards of residence there.

Leased by Coliseum Company

The building was owned by the Kesling-Henke company, and the rights to the Coliseum auditorium and dance hall were held by the Coliseum company under a twenty year lease. The building was built for the Saengerfest

NOTHING IN REPORT OF TRADES

Scouts for Giants Deny Rumors of St. Louis Deals

[Associated Press Leased Wire.]

OTTUMWA, Oct. 22.—President Honsstead and Scout Kinsella of the New York Giants, who are here with the Cubs and White Sox on their world's tour, stated this morning that there was nothing to the report to the effect that First Baseman Konetchy of St. Louis would become the property of the New York club in exchange for any New York player.

A letter was produced to show that New York was not ready to make a trade.

"I am too busy to talk trades, these days" was the answer given by Manager John J. McGraw of the Giants, this afternoon when asked regarding the reported trade between the St. Louis club and the New York Giants, wherein First Baseman Konetchy was to become the property of the latter club in exchange for some Giant player.

LIFE TERMER IS PARDONED

Mrs Anna Meyer Had Been Sentenced for Arson

[Associated Press Leased Wire.]

MOUNT PLEASANT, Ia., Oct. 22.—Mrs Anna Meyers, who was found guilty of arson here in the December term of court in 1908, and later sentenced to the Anamosa penitentiary for life, was today pardoned by Governor Geo. W. Clarke, Governor Carroll suspended sentence in June, 1910, on the condition that Mrs Meyers remain out of the state. Business men of Aberdeen, S. D., where she now resides, petitioned for the pardon.

Coliseum Fire Attracts Geese

Thousands of wild geese, attracted by the big fire at the Davenport coliseum last night, circled for hours in flocks over the burning building. The fire reflected on their white breasts gave a weird and spectacular effect. Their numbers were constantly augmented until the flames died down and their honks could be heard above the noise of the burning building. Some of the birds venturing too near the flames were stunned by the heat and fell into the burning mass.

FIRE LOSS AT TIFFIN $10,000

SEVERAL STORES ARE TOTALLY DESTROYED

There Is No Fire Department in the Village and Bucket Brigades Are Formed

[Times' Special Service.]

IOWA CITY, Ia., Oct. 22.—Fire due to spontaneous combustion destroyed $10,000 worth of property in the village of Tiffin near Iowa City, shortly after midnight. Insurance is half. The fire burned the Slade & Shay's block, the meat market and Garrett's barber shop, and all the contents. The flames damaging the Tiffin farmers bank, Windrem & Brant's grocery store and the Methodist church. There is no fire department in the village and farmers saved the town with a bucket brigade.

GERMANS PLAN TO SELL MORE HERE

[Associated Press Leased Wire.]

BERLIN, Oct. 22.—Preliminary steps were taken today for the formation of a German-American economic association devoted to the cultivation of friendly relations between the two countries in the fields of business and economic politics.

The association is under the auspices of the Manufacturers' League of Exporters to America and of the great shipping companies. It aims at a special German-American commercial treaty and the protection of those German interests affected by the manner in which the administrative clauses of the new tariff law are enforced.

FEW HEAR MRS PANKHURST

Great Hall in New York Only Partly Filled

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—There was a surprise in store for Mrs Emmeline Pankhurst last night when she entered Madison Square Garden to speak at a mass meeting. The English militant suffragist discovered that, although there were seats for fully 12,000 persons, few more than 2,000 had come to hear her talk about militancy in England.

Added to this was the fact that many persons were sorely disconcerted when, while Charles Edward Russell, Socialist candidate for mayor, was making the introductory remarks for Mrs Pankhurst, those in the $5 cent seats, in the $1 and $1.50 seats poured down into the main floor and began to take the $2 and $2.50 seats, regardless of the ushers or what they paid.

Gloom filled the place even before Mrs Pankhurst and Mrs Belmont reached the scene. The suffragists had hoped to have a real circus "turn" away" before Mrs Pankhurst put in appearance. Not so; New York was busy elsewhere, and the atmosphere of the meeting at first was cool toward the militant movement. True, in some sections of the hall there was enthusiasm when Mrs Pankhurst denounced leading politicians and statesmen of England. But Mrs Pankhurst drove home point after point in her arraignment.

"LOCKOUT" OF SERVANT GIRLS

Fifty Women in Houghton and Calumet Declare War After Maids Threaten

HOUGHTON, Mich., Oct. 22.—Fifty women in Houghton and Calumet are doing their own cooking, dishwashing, sweeping and dusting after having banded themselves together in a lockout against servant girls, who last week threatened to strike for eight hours and a 50 per cent increase in wages.

The girls planned to walk out in sympathy with the copper miners' strike. Several hotels also have discharged their servants.

Employment agencies are unable to furnish servants to take the places of the girls.

DEFICIENCY BILL IS MADE A LAW

PRESIDENT WILSON APPROVES CIVIL SERVICE EXEMPTIONS

Deputy Marshals and Deputy Collectors Are to Be Appointed By the Officers

[Associated Press Leased Wire.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—President Wilson today signed the urgent deficiency bill, carrying exemptions from the civil service of deputy U. S. marshals and deputy collectors of internal revenue.

The president gave out the following memorandum:

"I am convinced, after a careful examination of the facts, that offices of deputy collectors and deputy marshals were never intended to be included under the ordinary provisions of the civil service law. The control of the whole method and spirit of the administration of the provisions in this bill, which concerns the appointment of these offices, is not less entirely in my hands now than it was before this bill became law; my warm advocacy and support both of the principle and of the long fight practice civil service reform is known to the whole country and there is no danger that the spoil principle will creep in with my approval or connivance."

The president took the position that bonded officers, directly responsible for their subordinates, could choose more efficient men by personal selection than by examination because of the personal equation that enters into the confidential relation between employer and employe. The president, moreover, feels that at any time he can by executive order, control the situation.

Aged Woman Burns to Death

[Associated Press Leased Wire.]

FORT MADISON, Ia. Oct. 22.—Ellen Wallis, aged 72, was burned to ashes when her two room log cabin home near here was burned last night. An overturned lamp is supposed to have caused the fire.

TWO THOUSAND AT CHURCH MEETING

CONGREGATIONALISTS ARE GATHERED AT KANSAS CITY

Election of a Moderator and the Adoption of a New Constitution Today's Events

[Associated Press Leased Wire.]

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 22.—The most important conference of Congregationalists in a decade began here today when Moderator Bohemian Horatio of Brooklyn, N. Y., called to order the fifteenth triennial session of the national council of Congregational churches in the United States.

Before it has completed its sessions, which will occupy nine days, the council will have elected a new moderator, adopted a new constitution containing a new statement of doctrine, chosen a national secretary to act in an advisory capacity to the churches and societies of the country and heard men high in the service of the church report and suggest methods for spreading the doctrine of congregationalism to all corners of the world.

Six hundred delegates and two thousand visitors are in attendance. The election of a moderator was to take place this afternoon. There are four candidates: Rev. Wm. Horace Day of Los Angeles; Rev. Samuel H. Woodbridge, D. D., of Topeka; Charles S. Brown, dean of Yale divinity school, New Haven, Conn., and Rev. Charles S. Mills of Montclair. Dr. Horatio will defy address as retiring moderator tonight.

In connection with the national council, the eight national societies of the churches, including the missionary bodies, will hold meetings and practically all the prominent workers will attend.

MOTORMAN INSTANTLY KILLED

Aurora Bound Car Goes Into the Ditch Near That City

[Associated Press Leased Wire.]

AURORA, Ill., Oct. 22.—An Aurora-bound car on the Aurora, Elgin and Chicago railroad went into the ditch near Warrenville today. Motorman M. G. Whitney of West Chicago was instantly killed. A broken gear is believed to have caused the wreck. There were no passengers on board.

DR. T. J. BURKE OFF TO EUROPE

[Times' Special Service.]

DEWITT, Ia., Oct. 22.—Dr. T. J. Burke and family leave DeWitt today for New York, where the doctor will take a post graduate course for doctors, and on November 29 will sail on the steamer Adriatic for Naples, where they will remain until December 15. They will then visit cities in Italy and spend Christmas in Rome. On January 1 he will enter the North America college at Vienna, where he will study for five months.

SULZER GREETED BY LARGE CROWD

HE IS HAILED AS MARTYR HERO IN NEW YORK CITY

Makes Charges Against the Boss and Murphy Remains Silent for the Time Being

[Associated Press Leased Wire.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—William Sulzer opened headquarters at a Broadway hotel today for his campaign to re-establish himself at the state capital. Informally, he plunged into the fight as soon as he stepped from a late train from Albany last night, and from today on until election on November 4, he planned to conduct an organized campaign with his private secretary, Chester C. Platt, acting as manager, for election to the state assembly. His friends in the 15th assembly district who succeeded in making him the nominee on the Progressive party ticket, almost immediately after he was deposed as governor, shared his confidence of success.

Hot Fight Is On

The entry of the deposed governor into the local campaign, which is already at a high pitch of excitement over the naturally contest, with charges and recriminations flying everywhere, promises to make the next two weeks most stirring in a political way.

The fusionists, seeking the election of John Purroy Mitchel as mayor, are guarded in expressing enthusiasm over the entry of the deposed governor into the campaign, but they make no secret of their satisfaction over the fight which Mr Sulzer had declared against Tammany Hall, the defeat of whose power the fusionists profess to be their main object.

Murphy Is Silent

By installment Mr Sulzer continues to bring forth charges that Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany hall, made threats to him while he was governor, and that Edward H. McCall, the Tammany candidate for mayor, had acted as an emissary of the Tammany leader. Mr McCall has denounced the charges as falsehoods, while Mr Murphy has preserved his usual reticence, declaring only that he will wait until Mr Sulzer has finished all of his accusations before replying.

John A. Hennessy, who acted as personal investigator for Governor Sulzer, has injected himself into the city campaign as one of the anti-Tammany orators. In a speech late last night he charged that McCall acted as Murphy's mouthpiece and once told him to "carry to Sulzer the last word for Murphy of what would happen." If Sulzer did not withdraw from the senate every nomination he had made. This, he said, was nearly two months ago.

Crowd Cheers Sulzer

It was not until an early hour this morning that friends of the deposed governor allowed Mr Sulzer to go to bed, so determined were they to acclaim him a hero or a martyr. For nearly three hours after his arrival in the city a big crowd of his admirers cheered for him as they followed in a triumphal night tour through the East side district, where he refreshed in several short speeches that "the boss" had removed him because he fought for the people instead of for the Carnegie trust and a seat in the assembly that he might renew his fight. The demonstration in his behalf moved the ex-governor to tears, and he declared his acclaim as the greatest moment of his life.

GIVE UP TRIP OF COLUMBUS BOATS

[Associated Press Leased Wire.]

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 22.—Because of hardships encountered in navigation on the great lakes, the proposed cruise of Columbus and Niagara through the Panama canal to San Francisco for the exposition in 1915 has been abandoned and the three vessels, Pinta, Nina and Santa Maria, will be refitted to go to this city.

This was the information received here last night from Cleveland, where the Columbus and Niagara are lying. Wednesday and have it cleared up.

CAN'T FIND SUB FOR WOLGAST

[Associated Press Leased Wire.]

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 22.—The series of boxing contests which had been planned for the night of October 31 have been called off because the promoters have been unable to find a satisfactory substitute for Ad Wolgast, who was killed by Mike Gibbons of Chicago. Wolgast suffered a fractured rib last Sunday while training.

DEDICATE TOWER FOR CLEVELAND

PRINCETON UNIVERSITY ERECTS SPLENDID MEMORIAL

Former President Taft Delivers an Address and Many Universities Are Represented

[Associated Press Leased Wire.]

PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 22.—Princeton university's graduate college and the Grover Cleveland memorial tower, which is included in the agricultural scheme of the college buildings were dedicated today in the presence of a distinguished company of learned men from Europe and America.

Gifts amounting to $1,500,000 for the erection and endowment of the college enabled Princeton to realize an ideal conceived twenty years ago, the housing of graduate students in a body. The tower was presented to the university by Mrs Cleveland the moment an occasion which received gifts from the memorial fund from all over the United States.

President Hibbin of Princeton presided, and about him were former President William Howard Taft, who delivered the memorial address on Grover Cleveland, representatives of practically all the universities and colleges in the United States and Canada, hundreds of alumni and delegates from English, German and French universities.

After the keys of the college had been delivered by the architect to the trustees, Dean Andrew F. West of the graduate college to whom most of the credit has been given for the erection of the college, delivered an address on "The Household of Knowledge," emphasizing the benefits of graduate study.

At the close of the exercises, Richard Cleveland, a son of the former president, released to the wind a flag that had floated over the White House during the second administration of Mr Cleveland. A picture of Mr Cleveland hanging in one of the halls of the graduate college was draped with the flag which covered his casket.

DEMANDS CHANGE AT PYTHIAN HOME

GRAND CHANCELLOR MAKES CHARGES AGAINST MANAGEMENT

At State Convention in Decatur He Accuses Rev. Thornton Clark of Cruelty

DECATUR, Ill., Oct. 22.—Grand Chancellor Otto of the Knights of Pythias caused a wave of excitement in the opening session of the Illinois grand lodge here yesterday when he stated in his annual report that the Pythian home in this city was run like a penal institution, and recommended that Rev. and Mrs Thornton Clark, superintendent and matron of the home, be dismissed.

His report to the grand lodge read as follows:

"I recommend to this grand lodge that the Pythian home board be directed to engage a new superintendent and a new matron for the Pythian home.

"I further recommend that the Pythian home board be directed to make the change as soon as practicable.

"The grand lodge should require that the Pythian home of Illinois remain a fraternal institution, established for the support, guidance and education of the children who have a right to demand of us that they be protected. The Pythian home should not be permitted to become a penal institution, with prison rules in force and where brutal prison punishments are inflicted."

Clark Answers Charges

Rev. Thornton Clark answered the charges, saying:

"There is nothing to it, and that will be found out Wednesday. The whole matter was investigated two weeks ago by the home board and they found nothing. I have not been asked to resign. I expect to take the Children up with their work on Wednesday and have it cleared up."

In the afternoon session a special committee was appointed to consider the recommendations of the grand chancellor. This committee will report to the grand lodge Wednesday. The charges grew out of the public row which the home board had over pensions.

The grand chancellor also recommended that the home for aged Pythians be erected on the forty acres on which the orphans' home now is. He recommended a $10,000 building.

PRESIDENT HANGS OUT BUSY SIGN

[Associated Press Leased Wire.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—President Wilson let it be known today that he proposed to be exclusive for the remainder of the week. He had to do it. On Saturday he is scheduled to speak at the dedication of the restored Congress Hall in Philadelphia and on Monday he will deliver an address in Mobile, Ala., before the southern commercial congress. For the next two days his engagement list will be kept down to absolute essentials.

ENGLISH PAPERS BEGIN TO SEE MEXICAN POLICY OFFENDS UNITED STATES

LONDON PRESS URGES A CHANGE OF ATTITUDE ON PART OF GOVERNMENT

HUERTA RECOGNITION HASTY

Diplomatic Exchanges Between Ambassador Page and Sir Edward Grey Continue at London—New Man at Mexico Unsympathetic

[Associated Press Leased Wire.]

LONDON, Oct. 22.—The London newspapers are only just awakening to the possibility of an unfriendliness between the United States and Great Britain over the Mexican situation. Their warnings heretofore have all emanated from Washington and New York correspondents, the views of the British government as made known in the United States through the Associated Press not having been published here.

The Pall Mall Gazette today says: "There is evidently a grave misunderstanding between this country and the United States in regard to the Mexican crisis which should speedily be removed. There are elements of danger in the situation, which may easily arouse strong feeling on both sides of the Atlantic."

Ground of Complaint

"It cannot be denied that President Wilson had some grounds for complaint against the British foreign policy in Mexico," says the Globe today. The newspaper considers a grave mistake was made by the British foreign office's hasty recognition of Huerta, which was in such marked contrast with its dignified delay in recognizing King Peter of Servia. The Globe thinks the foreign office's attitude lends color to the suspicion that its policy is dictated by political considerations rather than for regard for the real interests of the nation.

Exchanges Continue

[Associated Press Leased Wire.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22—Diplomatic exchanges between Ambassador Page and the British foreign office with regard to Great Britain's attitude in Mexico are likely to continue, indications that Sir Lionel Carden, British minister to Mexico, does not sympathize with the American policy toward Huerta, has caused concern here and while some officials said they are not seeking European support, it was made plain they did not desire any factor injected into the situation from Europe that would impede the United States.

The administration takes the view that as the "nearest neighbor" to Mexico, the United States should have a free hand in trying to bring about peace.

It is not unlikely therefore that the reported statement of the British minister that the United States did not understand conditions in Mexico will be subject of further inquiry with the possibility that the episode may bring out important developments. Officials declined to discuss Ambassador Page's cablegram but their dissatisfaction with the attitude of Great Britain was not concealed.

Diplomatic circles today took increased interest in the situation and many dispatches predicted that the outcome might influence the American policy toward Great Britain on other questions.

The treasury department today notified all customs officers that the export to Mexico of rifle cartridges, cartridge cases, brass and other food shells and horses may be permitted as not in violation of the neutrality proclamation of March 14, 1912. The instruction follows a decision of Attorney General McReynolds, who was asked whether such articles "intended for the Mexican federal army or for other purposes, are munitions of war."

Diaz Arrives At Vera Cruz

[Associated Press Leased Wire.]

VERA CRUZ, Mex., Oct. 22.—The steamer Coronado with General Felix Diaz on board, and the German protected cruiser Hertha, arrived here almost at the same moment this morning. The Hertha anchored under the walls and the fortress of San Juan De Ulua, not 200 yards from the Coronado. After the Coronado had been inspected by the port authorities a boat put off from the Hertha and set two German officers on board the steamship on which General Diaz had made the voyage here.

As a result of the display of a force of rural guards, only a small group of partisans of General Diaz gathered to greet their leader.

At a clock Thursday the Coronado will go aboard the Coronado and set out for Mexico City, which is now besieged by the rebels.

Two Raiders Arrested

[Associated Press Leased Wire.]

MEXICO CITY, Mex., Oct. 22.—Private and Corporal Madera, brothers of the late president, have been arrested by Huerta's troops. Charged with complicity in a plot to turn over that city to revolutionists according to despatches printed in the newspapers here.

Uncle Sam Is Saloon Landlord

[Associated Press Leased Wire.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 22.—Uncle Sam as a saloonkeeper has drawn the fire of the Anti-Saloon League and Secretary McAdoo is the target at which the fulminations of the white ribbonists are being hurled. The government owns a large block of property just south of the treasury on which it is proposed to erect homes for the department of state, justice and possibly one other. In the territory, which is occupied by business buildings, are three saloons. All of the tenants rent by the month from the government.

STATUE OF CHIEF KEOKUK UNVEILED

ELABORATE EXERCISES HELD AT RAND PARK, KEOKUK

John Keokuk, Great Great Grandson of the Indian Warrior, Is Interested Spectator

[Associated Press Leased Wire.]

KEOKUK, Ia., Oct. 22.—On the site where three-quarters of a century ago his war councils were held, a bronze statue of Chief Keokuk was this afternoon unveiled in Rand park. The unveiling ceremony was held in connection with the Iowa Daughters of the American Revolution conference, which is in session today.

Mrs William Cummings Story, national president general of the D. A. R., was one of the speakers at the unveiling exercises, which were held in the Grand opera house instead of at the park on account of the inclemency of the weather.

John Keokuk, an Oklahoma resident, and great great grandson of the noted chief, delivered a message from his people at the exercises.

The Hon. James C. Davis, Mrs Harold E. Howell, state regent, and Edgar R. Harlan, state curator, also spoke.

Mrs William Cummings Story in her address before the first session of the state conference this morning, urged the completion of the enterprise of marking pioneer trails across the country. A tablet marking the Mormon trail across Iowa was dedicated in connection with the unveiling of the Keokuk statue.

Can't Lose Government Property

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—In consequence of the many requests made upon the new department for the loan of government property, especially army tents, Secretary Garrison has called upon Judge Advocate General Crowder to state once for all how governmental transactions in the opinion jurist may be conducted. Crowder points out that the government property may be loaned to the Grand Army of the Republic and the United Confederate veterans.
