Twitty At Col

Conway Twitty and his orchestra will star at a "Teen Spectacular" this Tuesday night at the Col Ballroom in Davenport. The hours will be 7 to 10 p.m.

Sorry, Folks— You Must Be 60

Two weeks ago, in the Sunday Times-Democrat Amusement Section, there was a story about the growth of the Golden Age Movie Club in the Quad-Cities. The story stated that persons 50 years of age or older were eligible. This statement was incorrect. The eligibility age begins at 60 years.

'Detectives' In 20 Languages

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actor Mark Goddard recently got some Japanese newspaper clippings about the Robert Taylor show "The Detectives."

Intrigued, he started studying Japanese and vowed he would learn enough of each language in which the show was dubbed.

Knowing actors' egos, this is not hard to believe.

But Goddard may become one of the great linguists of all time.

The series has been sold into 20 different languages.

Bob Cummings In Jet Business

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Bob Cummings, a pilot for 24 years, will become part owner of a jet aircraft factory.

The actor returned from three months in Japan where he filmed "My Girl" with Shirley MacLaine, took off in a few days for Switzerland to confer with William Lear of Lear Aircraft in Geneva.

Cummings will join the Lear firm in producing a 600-mile-an-hour businessman's jet, carrying eight passengers.

Bob is a licensed jet pilot.
