

SCHUMAN-HEINCK ARRIVES LATE

BIG DEMAND FOR SEATS FOR CON- CERT AT COLISEUM

Musical Event Tonight Expected To Be Brilliant Social Event at Open- ing of New Building

Madame Schuman-Heinck, accompanied by her company of accompanists and vocalists will arrive in Davenport this evening at seven o'clock for the concert at the new Coliseum this evening. The opening of the new building with Schuman-Heinck as the stellar attraction is expected to be the most brilliant musical event staged in Davenport for many years.

Davenport society people have reserved seats and will make the affair one of unusual brilliance. It is expected to be the opening of the social season as well as a musical event and the large building will be filled to its capacity.

Promoters of the concert announced today that the seat sale had been enormous and are greatly pleased with the result of their initial bow to the Davenport public.

Among the vocalists accompanying Madame Schuman-Heinck is Ed McNamora, a policeman, whose wonderful tenor has surprised and pleased many thousands since he was discovered by Schuman-Heinck. He will be heard in solos tonight.
