

Lombardo
Guy Lombardo and his Royal Canadians will appear at Merenda's in Milan on April 26, 27 and 28.

Wanda Jackson's Party Timers

Author Grant the copy comes in the Davenport Missouri Temple for at- press and evening performances on April 25. Included on the program will be Wanda Jackson and her Party Timers.

Warren Beatty Concerned For His Image As Actor

HERBERT, Eng- land — Unlike most movie stars, if you see Warren Beatty walking on the street and don't recognize him, he'll be happy.

"Because I'm an actor first and a personality second," he declares.

Beatty, currently starring with Leslie Caron and Bob Cummings in the new comedy "Promises, Men and Tears," is an actor who takes his profession seriously. The film begins Wednesday at the RKO Orpheum Theatre in Davenport and

WARREN BEATTY
Business building as Sir Laurence Olivier, Sir Alec Guinness and Peter Sellers as examples of the posters he prefers to follow.

"These men, all top in their field, have consistently interrupted their film work for stage and television appearances, have shied out of the glare of continuing publicity, and can play any role at all. I think they are the type of personality I want to follow."

"Whether part they portray, they are completely believable, because the audience has no fixed picture in the mind of what to expect on the screen."

"I am most happy not to be in the street and say there goes Warren Beatty," he says when they say there goes Warren Beatty, the actor.

Beatty points to the long, unbroken and continued success of such outstanding stars as

Laurence Olivier, Sir Alec Guinness and Peter Sellers as examples of the posters he prefers to follow.

"These men, all top in their field, have consistently interrupted their film work for stage and television appearances, have shied out of the glare of continuing publicity, and can play any role at all. I think they are the type of personality I want to follow."

"Whether part they portray, they are completely believable, because the audience has no fixed picture in the mind of what to expect on the screen."

"I am most happy not to be in the street and say there goes Warren Beatty," he says when they say there goes Warren Beatty, the actor.

Beatty points to the long, unbroken and continued success of such outstanding stars as

Laurence Olivier, Sir Alec Guinness and Peter Sellers as examples of the posters he prefers to follow.

"These men, all top in their field, have consistently interrupted their film work for stage and television appearances, have shied out of the glare of continuing publicity, and can play any role at all. I think they are the type of personality I want to follow."

"Whether part they portray, they are completely believable, because the audience has no fixed picture in the mind of what to expect on the screen."

"I am most happy not to be in the street and say there goes Warren Beatty," he says when they say there goes Warren Beatty, the actor.

Beatty points to the long, unbroken and continued success of such outstanding stars as

Laurence Olivier, Sir Alec Guinness and Peter Sellers as examples of the posters he prefers to follow.

"These men, all top in their field, have consistently interrupted their film work for stage and television appearances, have shied out of the glare of continuing publicity, and can play any role at all. I think they are the type of personality I want to follow."

"Whether part they portray, they are completely believable, because the audience has no fixed picture in the mind of what to expect on the screen."

"I am most happy not to be in the street and say there goes Warren Beatty," he says when they say there goes Warren Beatty, the actor.

Beatty points to the long, unbroken and continued success of such outstanding stars as

Laurence Olivier, Sir Alec Guinness and Peter Sellers as examples of the posters he prefers to follow.

"These men, all top in their field, have consistently interrupted their film work for stage and television appearances, have shied out of the glare of continuing publicity, and can play any role at all. I think they are the type of personality I want to follow."

"Whether part they portray, they are completely believable, because the audience has no fixed picture in the mind of what to expect on the screen."

"I am most happy not to be in the street and say there goes Warren Beatty," he says when they say there goes Warren Beatty, the actor.

Beatty points to the long, unbroken and continued success of such outstanding stars as

Laurence Olivier, Sir Alec Guinness and Peter Sellers as examples of the posters he prefers to follow.

"These men, all top in their field, have consistently interrupted their film work for stage and television appearances, have shied out of the glare of continuing publicity, and can play any role at all. I think they are the type of personality I want to follow."

"Whether part they portray, they are completely believable, because the audience has no fixed picture in the mind of what to expect on the screen."

"I am most happy not to be in the street and say there goes Warren Beatty," he says when they say there goes Warren Beatty, the actor.

Beatty points to the long, unbroken and continued success of such outstanding stars as

Laurence Olivier, Sir Alec Guinness and Peter Sellers as examples of the posters he prefers to follow.

"These men, all top in their field, have consistently interrupted their film work for stage and television appearances, have shied out of the glare of continuing publicity, and can play any role at all. I think they are the type of personality I want to follow."

"Whether part they portray, they are completely believable, because the audience has no fixed picture in the mind of what to expect on the screen."

"I am most happy not to be in the street and say there goes Warren Beatty," he says when they say there goes Warren Beatty, the actor.

Beatty points to the long, unbroken and continued success of such outstanding stars as

Laurence Olivier, Sir Alec Guinness and Peter Sellers as examples of the posters he prefers to follow.

"These men, all top in their field, have consistently interrupted their film work for stage and television appearances, have shied out of the glare of continuing publicity, and can play any role at all. I think they are the type of personality I want to follow."

"Whether part they portray, they are completely believable, because the audience has no fixed picture in the mind of what to expect on the screen."

"I am most happy not to be in the street and say there goes Warren Beatty," he says when they say there goes Warren Beatty, the actor.

Beatty points to the long, unbroken and continued success of such outstanding stars as

Laurence Olivier, Sir Alec Guinness and Peter Sellers as examples of the posters he prefers to follow.

"These men, all top in their field, have consistently interrupted their film work for stage and television appearances, have shied out of the glare of continuing publicity, and can play any role at all. I think they are the type of personality I want to follow."

"Whether part they portray, they are completely believable, because the audience has no fixed picture in the mind of what to expect on the screen."

"I am most happy not to be in the street and say there goes Warren Beatty," he says when they say there goes Warren Beatty, the actor.

Beatty points to the long, unbroken and continued success of such outstanding stars as

Laurence Olivier, Sir Alec Guinness and Peter Sellers as examples of the posters he prefers to follow.

"These men, all top in their field, have consistently interrupted their film work for stage and television appearances, have shied out of the glare of continuing publicity, and can play any role at all. I think they are the type of personality I want to follow."

"Whether part they portray, they are completely believable, because the audience has no fixed picture in the mind of what to expect on the screen."

"I am most happy not to be in the street and say there goes Warren Beatty," he says when they say there goes Warren Beatty, the actor.

Beatty points to the long, unbroken and continued success of such outstanding stars as

Laurence Olivier, Sir Alec Guinness and Peter Sellers as examples of the posters he prefers to follow.

"These men, all top in their field, have consistently interrupted their film work for stage and television appearances, have shied out of the glare of continuing publicity, and can play any role at all. I think they are the type of personality I want to follow."

"Whether part they portray, they are completely believable, because the audience has no fixed picture in the mind of what to expect on the screen."

"I am most happy not to be in the street and say there goes Warren Beatty," he says when they say there goes Warren Beatty, the actor.

Beatty points to the long, unbroken and continued success of such outstanding stars as

Laurence Olivier, Sir Alec Guinness and Peter Sellers as examples of the posters he prefers to follow.

"These men, all top in their field, have consistently interrupted their film work for stage and television appearances, have shied out of the glare of continuing publicity, and can play any role at all. I think they are the type of personality I want to follow."

"Whether part they portray, they are completely believable, because the audience has no fixed picture in the mind of what to expect on the screen."

"I am most happy not to be in the street and say there goes Warren Beatty," he says when they say there goes Warren Beatty, the actor.

Beatty points to the long, unbroken and continued success of such outstanding stars as

Laurence Olivier, Sir Alec Guinness and Peter Sellers as examples of the posters he prefers to follow.

"These men, all top in their field, have consistently interrupted their film work for stage and television appearances, have shied out of the glare of continuing publicity, and can play any role at all. I think they are the type of personality I want to follow."

"Whether part they portray, they are completely believable, because the audience has no fixed picture in the mind of what to expect on the screen."

Look For Ninth Trick In More Than One Suit

By ALFRED HEINWOLD

In some hands you can play for your ninth trick in more than one suit. Always go to where it costs nothing to try.

West leads the king of spades, leading the first trick.

On the spade continue East discards a diamond, and you take your ace. You have eight sure tricks and need one additional trick for the contract.

Since spades and diamonds are trumps, you must look for the ninth trick in hearts or clubs. Convention. Look for the ninth trick in hearts AND clubs.

First you lead a low club. When West plays low, you try

East returns a diamond, and you win in your hand with the jack. Now the time has come to play for the ninth trick.

Lead a low heart. When West plays low, try another diamond. This time with the nine of hearts. East wins with the jack and returns another diamond.

Win the game of diamonds and lead a heart to diamond's ace. Hearts with the ace of diamonds and each the king of hearts. The game drops, and your ten of hearts.

If the queen of hearts has been discarded, you will still be in position to try the king.

As dealer, you hold: Spades 4 3 2 2 hearts A K, 10, 9, 8, 7, 6, 5, 4, 3, 2, 1. West is you.

ANALYSIS: Pass. You have 11 points in high cards and 1 point for the distribution. That a 12-point hand is worth opening only if you have a good suit of five cards or more.

West dealer North-South vulnerable

WEST

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

Look For Ninth Trick In More Than One Suit

By ALFRED HEINWOLD

In some hands you can play for your ninth trick in more than one suit. Always go to where it costs nothing to try.

West leads the king of spades, leading the first trick.

On the spade continue East discards a diamond, and you take your ace. You have eight sure tricks and need one additional trick for the contract.

Since spades and diamonds are trumps, you must look for the ninth trick in hearts or clubs. Convention. Look for the ninth trick in hearts AND clubs.

First you lead a low club. When West plays low, you try

East returns a diamond, and you win in your hand with the jack. Now the time has come to play for the ninth trick.

Lead a low heart. When West plays low, try another diamond. This time with the nine of hearts. East wins with the jack and returns another diamond.

Win the game of diamonds and lead a heart to diamond's ace. Hearts with the ace of diamonds and each the king of hearts. The game drops, and your ten of hearts.

If the queen of hearts has been discarded, you will still be in position to try the king.

As dealer, you hold: Spades 4 3 2 2 hearts A K, 10, 9, 8, 7, 6, 5, 4, 3, 2, 1. West is you.

ANALYSIS: Pass. You have 11 points in high cards and 1 point for the distribution. That a 12-point hand is worth opening only if you have a good suit of five cards or more.

West dealer North-South vulnerable

WEST

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1

10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1