

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING
TO CONSIDER AN ORDINANCE AMENDING
RAPPAHANNOCK COUNTY CODE, CHAPTER 170, ZONING

The Rappahannock County Board of Supervisors will hold a Public Hearing on February 2, 2026 at 7:00 p.m., at the Courthouse located at 250 Gay Street, Washington, Virginia, to consider the following amendments to Rappahannock County Code, Chapter 170, Zoning related to lodging:

- § 170-8, “Definitions,”
- § 170-36, “Permitted uses, special uses and special permits”
- § 170-41, “Temporary mobile home permits”
- § 170-64, “Category 3: Public and Quasi-Public Uses”
- § 170-65, “Category 4: Recreation and Amusement” and
- § 170-66, “Category 5: Commercial, Retail and Business Uses”

The purpose of the ordinance to amend county code is to clarify definitions related to, and requirements for all Transient Lodging and conference center uses currently regulated by the county code.

A copy of the full text of the proposed ordinance is on file in the office of the county administrator. All interested persons are invited to attend and to make comment on the ordinance, or to mail such comments to: P.O. Box 519, Washington, VA 22747 or to admin@rappahannockcountyva.gov

1/15 & 1/22/26